Great Lakes Christian College

Alumni Association Membership 2010

The GLCC Alumni Association is a community of alumni who are thankful for their GLCC experience and believe in it's mission, "to glorify God by preparing students to be servant-leaders in the church and world" and desire to see this important work continue. The Alumni Association and Office of Alumni Relations work together to enhance fellowship, communication, and services beneficial to the alumni and the College.

Please join us!

Your GLCC Alumni Association membership helps underwrite alumni events, as well as scholarships. Your membership is important. If you are not currently a member we encourage you to partner with us.

The GLCC Alumni Association seeks to be a highly visible and effective organization that is known for the quality of services it provides to all alumni. The Association also seeks to model servant-leadership through giving back to those students coming after us. Alumni Association membership is win-win—you benefit others and yourself!

Your Membership Makes a Difference:

- We provide two scholarships every year to deserving GLCC students
- We fund special projects for GLCC students throughout the year
- We host a faculty, staff, administration appreciation luncheon at Christmas
