FAITHFULLY TRAINING SERVANTS: THE FRUIT OF OUR LABOR

Fifty-five years ago, the founders of Great Lakes Christian College could only dream of the success GLCC students are having in the world.

This year, GLCC celebrates graduating her 1000th student. Instead of singling out a particular student, we have chosen to recognize the entire class. On May 14, 2005, State Representative Dr. Michael Murphy gave a stimulating discourse to our 28 graduates — plus two graduates of the Spring Arbor/Great Lakes Christian College program. Two graduates from 1955 attended: Clarence Dickinson and Kathleen, the wife of Terry Alverson, received recognition.

A LONG OBEDIENCE

Recently, GLCC had the opportunity to be a part of a regional church conference. While there, I received a lot of encouragement from others concerning the recent success we have experienced at Great Lakes Christian College. One person said to me, "It's amazing what has happened at Great Lakes! How are you guys doing it?"

While I always appreciate sincere compliments, the subsequent question implied that somehow we had discovered a new program or hired a dynamic person that helped put us over the top. As we at GLCC know, that is not the case. We are far from where we want to be. While we have a good group of people working for the College, we know that it's not just one person or idea that is going to make the difference. It takes the whole group committing to the idea of excellence over a long period of time.

In the past, GLCC has been blessed by people who have served with excellence. Far too often their contributions haven't been appropriately recognized. From the administrative staff to professor's row there have been many through the years that have contributed so much to the success of our College, recent or otherwise. There are a few who stand out in my mind. There is Charles Matthews who served as our President when we moved to the Dodge Mansion in Lansing. I think of John Hasty who, in eight years as President, rescued us from near bankruptcy, gained recognition by the Michigan State Board of Education, achieved Associate Membership in ABHE (formerly AABC), qualified us for Basic Opportunity Grants for our students, and had the vision and leadership ability to move the campus to our current location with only $5,000 in cash reserves. His contribution to the success of GLCC is incalculable. And, of course, I think of Jerry Paul. It has been people like these who have made us what we are today.

GLCC has been and will continue to be committed to long-term excellence. We are not looking for a quick fix or an innovative idea to solve our problems or reach our potential. We want to continue to build on the underlying foundations of past servant-leaders. We want to develop systems that will have the greatest impact on drawing quality personnel and students. We want to implement a consistent philosophy that can span the years and move us confidently into the future. And we want to do it all for the right reason. The Apostle Paul wrote in Colossians 3:23 and 24, "Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men; knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve."

We serve a great God with a purpose that is honorable and good. Our task is, as the title of one of Eugene Peterson's books suggests, to have our College pursue A Long Obedience In The Same Direction. We join in a long obedience that began in 1949 and continues even today.

Divine Servant Award

GEORGE STEHLE

George Stehle receives the Divine Servant Award

The Dr. Brant Lee Doty Memorial Divine Servant Award is the highest award given by Great Lakes Christian College. It is named in honor of a beloved professor and administrator of our College who embodied the servant-leader model for almost 50 years. This recognition is given to a senior student or alumnus whose life has consistently illustrated the sacrificial spirit as taught by Jesus Christ and demonstrated in the life and service of Dr. Brant Lee Doty.

George Stehle came to Great Lakes Christian College following a sensing of God's call to ministry while still in High School. He entered college in 1953, the same year Dr. Doty began as a professor. The day he enrolled for classes, George Getchel, a senior student, asked him if he would be interested in a weekend preaching ministry – he said, "Yes," and thus began his life-long service to the Lord. Since that time, George has been a minister at churches in Michigan, Indiana, and Pennsylvania. In addition to those ministries, he served for 18 years as a professor of New Testament, Greek, and Practical Ministries at GLCC.

After retiring in 2002, he was approached by Great Lakes Christian Home in Holt to become their chaplain in residence. He has served effectively in that ministry since the fall of 2003.

He married Kathryn Moore in 1962 and God blessed them with 3 children and subsequently, 5 grandchildren. He has stated that his wife was the one responsible for any success he has enjoyed.

George Stehle is a wonderful example of a man who decided early in adulthood to give his life in service to the Lord. He has done that well as a preacher, professor, husband, and father. We are proud to have him be the recipient of the Dr. Brant Lee Doty Divine Servant Award.

THE FRUIT OF OUR LABOR

Phil Beavers
Vice President of Institutional Advancement
pbeavers@glcc.edu

Great Lakes Christian College has been in existence for over 55 years. In those 55 years, we have...

- Built an institution of learning where Christ is at the center.
- Provided a place for dedicated Christian young people to learn in a Christian environment.
- Presented the Bible as truth and a guide for living; a message relevant for today's culture.
- Developed a strong academic excellence and expectation.
- Established a respected faculty who has excellent credentials and high standards.
- Maintained our commitment to New Testament Christianity.
- Trained and equipped students to serve Christ in the church and world.

The Lord continues to give us even more opportunities to fulfill His commission through the students we send out.

The late GLCC President, Louis Detro said it well when he described why he accepted the position of president, "I am here because the Lord has called me here. I am here because I believe that the preaching and teaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only hope for our world. And I am here because I believe our youth can be challenged and trained to meet and fulfill the mission of the Great Commission." —KEY, September 1965

Your partnership is appreciated whether you are praying for us or sending us your financial support. It is because of your partnership that we will continue to build, provide, present, develop, establish, maintain, train, and equip students to make a difference for the Kingdom.

If you would like to partner financially with us in this life-changing ministry, an envelope is provided in this issue. Visit our website to learn more about the Partnering to Change Lives campaign and the Doty Center project.

WEEK OF OUTREACH

Top: Ireland team, Middle: Dominican Republic team Bottom: Hong Kong team

Once again, we sent our students out into the world to serve and experience life outside of their comfort zone. Professor George Brown took a group of students to the Dominican Republic to work at a feeding station in Santiago, assist in the construction of a dormitory at one of the ministry hubs, teach children, and preach the gospel. Professor Mark Christian led a group to Ireland to conduct a youth conference and teach the adults in a retreat setting. President Larry Carter and his wife, Judy, and Campus Life Directors, Brian and Betsy Carter, took a group to Hong Kong to lead worship at an Evangelical Drug Rehabilitation Center, teach in a middle school and high school, visit missionaries, and conduct Sunday School in a local church.

All of these trips were life-changing events for both those who went on the trips, as well as those who were served.

Kimberly McKean said of her experience: "Our trip to Hong Kong opened my eyes to see that the Gospel is spreading rapidly in Asia. Though idol worship is still present in Hong Kong, God is working through many different ministries to overturn that stronghold. Through this mission trip, I learned to be more flexible as an instrument of God in ministry. Despite language barriers, I saw God use our team as a reflection of His love to others. It was exciting to see the joy of God passed on to the Chinese people through our team's ministry. This experience helped me to better understand how God is working in this part of the world."

Women's Spring Celebration

Jodie Mika and Donella Peasley

Rachel Lantzer, Jackie Lautzenheiser, Julie Haynie, and Rosemary Lautzenheiser

The 2005 Women's Spring Celebration was a joyous occasion! Thank you to all those who participated. Linda Mirante spoke with enthusiasm and packed with scripture and humor. She encouraged us to Celebrate the Joy of everything we do in life. She spoke of the joy of knowing God, the joy of forgiveness, the joy of growing, the joy of being you, and the joy of obedience. Above all, she urged us to stop waiting for "the right moment" and to seize the joy in every moment by living for God.

The offering goal was to purchase 54 sets of desks and chairs for the women's dorm. Offering taken that night was enough to acquire 39 sets. Thank you for your generosity! Phil Beavers issued a challenge for churches and ladies' groups to discuss sponsoring an additional desk set. If your church or women's group is able to donate $275 to supply one desk and chair to our women's dorm, please contact Pat Goff at (517) 321-0242 ext. 248 or pgoff@glcc.edu.

Ron Klepal

EXEMPLIFYING SERVANTHOOD

Ron and Cindy Klepal: Ron Klepal faithfully served GLCC for 27 years and will be dearly missed.

This is a bittersweet summer for the GLCC family as we acknowledge the ministry of Ron Klepal for the past 27 years and encourage him into a new journey in ministry. The Lord has called Ron to the preaching position at the West Lansing Church of Christ.

One word that best describes Ron's relationship with GLCC is "loyalty." Ron's dedication to the mission of Great Lakes did not go unnoticed. He exemplifies servanthood in every way, doing whatever it takes for everyone to see Christ embodied through Great Lakes Christian College. His years with GLCC are best described by current student Travis Fox, "I have always seen Ron as an example of integrity in servanthood. He is cheerful with others and a model of dedication to the Lord."

On May 11, faculty, staff, and students gathered for a "roast" for Ron. It seemed that everyone present learned something new about Ron and how he has served the College in the admissions, academic, and athletic departments. We enjoyed a slide show of pictures of Ron and various facts about his service throughout the years. Did you know that Ron Klepal has been involved in the lives of 728 of the school's 1000 graduates since coming on staff with GLCC? Many in the audience expressed spontaneous gratitude as they regaled stories of the silly situations Ron found himself in, as well as how Ron has touched countless lives with his servant's heart. Ron will continue to be a fixture on campus and involved with campus life.

Thank you, Ron, for your years of servant-leadership to develop and shape the next generation.
