The President's Pen - President Larry Carter

The message of Christ has always been consistent with the desire to benefit all mankind, not just the church. We were blessed to be a blessing. The problem is that many who have attached their names to Christianity have obscured or contradicted that message. Gandhi, while without excuse in rejecting Christ, was not able to see beyond the inconsistent behavior and attitudes of His avowed adherents. It didn't have to be that way.

Albert Einstein reportedly wrote a letter to Martin Niemoller at the end of WW II in which he stated, "Having always been an ardent partisan of freedom I turned to the Universities, as soon as the revolution broke out in Germany, to find the Universities took refuge in silence.
