Logistics with a Biblical perspective to lead. The Business Logistics program is for those wanting to work for non-profit, for-profit, secular or faith-based organizations worldwide.

Church Planting The program is ideal for pastors, Church leaders, or those who are entrepreneurially spirited with a heart for church planting and serving their communities.

Christian Leadership &

Communication This degree helps students build a solid communications foundation along with technology skills that will prepare them for a wide range of leadership and communication positions in any faith-based organization or business.

Youth Ministry Our Youth Ministry major prepares students to minister to children and adolescents in both the church and world. Students participate in academic courses, practical courses and field experiences, as well as a seminar presented by leading youth ministers from the field.

Dual Enrollment Dual Enrollment allows public, private, or homeschooled high school students to enroll in courses at GLCC for credit prior to high school graduation. College credits earned through our dual enrollment program may be applied toward high school and college graduation and may be transferred to other colleges or universities.

We are looking forward to a wonderful buffet meal and a great program and fellowship. Plan to bring a group of women to fill a table. An offering will be received to benefit the students and their experience at GLCC.

“Blank Canvas: Who’s The Artist?”

Our speaker for the 2023 Women's Spring Celebration is Beth George speaking on the theme, “Blank Canvas: Who’s The Artist?”. Beth is the Co-owner and Director of Field Development at Better Way Designs with 13 years of investment into the anti-sex-trafficking movement.

Specializing in business development, Beth uses her skill set to support organizations that are fighting the evils of sex trafficking through dignified employment. Beth is also an alumnus (2007) and superfan of Great Lakes Christian College. Beth LOVES Jesus and is all about anything that shines light on the glory of the Father.
